“ Mike was a good plumber and a helpful person. He will be missed by many. I personally thought the world of him and enjoyed visiting with him on occasion when he did work around our home. My prayers are with you all and may Gods peace be with you all.

“ We just heard of Mike's passing today and we wish to send our deepest condolences to his family. Mike did some work at our house in early summer and we spoke about how long he had been doing work for us. We were one of his first customers. He was such a good man working hard to provide for his family. We will miss him and keep him and his family in our prayers.
