“ Gina, Annette and family,

Please accept my deepest condolences. Mona was a rare gem we were all blessed to know. Her and I met often at the grocery store and would spend several minutes consoling one another, but we never missed an opportunity to make each other laugh, if only for a minute, before going on with our day. She became a wonderful and cherished friend. Oh how happy she is to be with your dad and sister again. May you find comfort in knowing that she is safe in the arms of Jesus.
