“ Pop, missing you! I would love to see you and hear your voice! You were called home too soon! Going through a rough patch right now, but I know you are watching us! David has been talking about you quite a bit lately. I wish that you would wake up like he believes you will! He asks when will pop wake up mom. We love you with all our heart. Love always your oldest granddaughter. Julie

“ Ms. Juanita, Bozie, and the Romero family. I am so sorry to hear of Mr. Joe's passing. Please accept my deepest condolences and know that I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. I've not seen him in years, but I am willing to bet that Mr. Joe hadn't changed a bit. Even though I was scared to death of him I enjoyed the times we all spent together. Regardless of whether he was sitting in his recliner after one of Ms. Juanita's Sunday meals or saddling up the horses for a race, Mr. Joe always found a way to make us laugh and smile. Rest in peace, Mr. Joe.

“ I will miss my Uncle ALL SO MUCH! Living in the country as we did and the way dad worked and mom not being able to drive it was the BEST DAY IN THE WORLD for me when My Aunt Juanita and Uncle Norris would come visit with my cousins! Even though we all grew up and went this way and that we would still get visits from my Aunt and Uncle and I will always remember him fondly in my heart. No matter how many nieces and nephews he had he made us ALL feel like we were special.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of my Uncle and Godfather. I hope you will always have fond memories shared with him that will last forever... in your hearts and in your lives. God bless all of you and provide you with His strength to cope with his loss.

Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;

to be understood as to understand;

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;

and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

“ It's very sad to hear that Uncle Norris has passed. I remember every time the family and he would come to visit us in Cade when I was little. I enjoyed those visits immensely and will never forget them. Rest in peace and may the Lord's blessings be upon you and yours.

Your Great Nephew,
Mikel
