Bonnie and Steve, our condolences on the loss of your mother. She was always one of my most favorite persons and she always had a smile on her face. I apologize for not being able to be with you at this sad time, but I also lost my "other mother" last evening and as you know have lots to do for her service here in Texas. We will be keeping you in our thoughts and prayers during this time. Betty Walsh Dismukes, Jay's daughter (and family).

My heartfelt condolences, Bonnie and Steve. I have so many wonderful memories of your mother, from the time she baby sat us, to the time I would come to visit from Seattle. She'd make coffee, and then go settle down while I would then serve it to her. And so much the better if I had brought cookies! Oh, then there was the crocheting. I would bring or send yarn, and she'd work it right up--including the baby afghans for Valerie's children.

She was one of the warmest, funniest, friendliest, most compassionate people I have ever met, and I hope to be able to be a tenth of that someday. What a beautiful human, and I hope her passing was good and gentle. Good bye, Aunt Nay; I love you.
