“ Regrettably, we never did visit her at the home, and her Easter Mass card is sitting on my desk waiting to be mailed closer to Easter. Now she will be spending Easter in Heaven, where I don't believe the card can be forwarded to her! She was the last of a very pious Catholic family, and probably the last of Fred's dad's first cousins. She spoke fondly of her 'Aunt Trace', Teresa Z. Gossen, Fred's grandmother. Fred and I send the nieces, nephews and their families our deepest sympathy in passing of Patricia.

“ I remember her from Rayne High School—I had a class with her—I didn't realize she was just 10 years older than me. Lord thank you for her life.

Agree on the fact she was not much older than we were in junior high. She was a stern; but excellent teacher. She somehow got us to do the VERY BEST work possible.
