“ Oh, Boo - I'm so sorry to learn that Ted has left our earthly world for better and greener pastures. You and I spent many an hour yakking about our husbands, didn't we, "back in the day"! You surely will always miss him, but Ted knew that he was leaving behind a strong woman and a loving family with lots of friends who are always willing to help. Jay and I are praying that Ted's passage into the loving arms of God is smooth and sweet and, in the end, glorious. Love you, dear girl - Helen

“ On behalf of the staff and board members of Downtown Lafayette, I want to express our heartfelt condolences to Ted's family. We've known and worked with Ted in downtown Lafayette activities for over 20 years. He was such a part of what we consider our family of downtowners, people who have worked and been a part of its history and change. He will be missed.
Sincerely. Cathy Webre

“ Mr Ted was around from as long as i can remember. Anytime i needed something, my dad called Mr. ted. He was always so caring and kind. He helped myself and my siblings over the past several years. He moved us, fixed our cars, gave us rides, fixed our cell phones, and always had a big smile on his face. You could always smell him before you could see him and you knew if he was in the elevator before you. I send my special prayers to his wife mrs. boo, his children and grandchildren. I know he loved you all so much and we all felt part of the family as well. Thank you for sharing him with us all these years. We loved him like an uncle. Rest in Peace, Mr. Ted!!

“ I knew Ted for over 20 years through my employment with the First National Bank, Bank One and then Chase. I always enjoyed my relationship with him and thought that we worked together on the same team. I had complete trust in him because of his integrity, honesty and patience. I considered him a friend and will miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with the family today.
