“ Erwin was always a delight to see at TMIY at St Pius. Seeing him walk thru the Life Center doors around 6 AM always warmed my heart. He would go straight to the coffee (as most do) and always kid that he went to school with Juan Valdez as we would 'talk' coffee. He ALWAYS spoke highly and warmly of his wife and his children. Everyone there enjoyed his company. We will miss him on Saturday mornings. He lived what 'THAT MAN IS YOU' (TMIY) is all about. It was also a pleasure and a blessing for me to get to coach soccer with a real international South American soccer player. It was the capstone of my soccer coaching career. He was so knowledgeable and dedicated and brought such a rich element to the JPG soccer program. I loved having his presence on the sidelines. I will dearly miss him. He was such a great guy.

Oh Yvette i am so sorry to read about the lost of your Husband. I never met him but in knowing you and the love that you have shown to all of us i feel as though you guys were just alike. I pray that you hold to the memories you had and that you remain strong and if you don't it okay let your family and friends come in and help you get through it. You're a great classmate and you're especially a great friend take Care.
