“ I just don't know where to start. I was truly shocked when I learned of Peggy death. I thought she was doing well. I will never forget the crazy wonderful times we all had in our younger years. We all thought how invincible we were when she was my Maid of Honor at my wedding, but I soon changed my belief when Jerry died so suddenly. I guess what makes me feel even sadder than her death, was the fact that I kept saying to myself " I have to go visit Peg" but with our busy life we all seem to put things off til tomorrow, well now tomorrow will never come for me to visit my dear, dear, friend. I am so sorry for all her family who will suffer this great loss.

“ Dear Bill, Todd, Rachelle, Shelley, and Crystal

I was deeply saddened to learn of Peggy's passing. There are no words I can say to ease your pain. Peggy was the very heart of the family. She was like a beautiful tapestry that inter-twined each thread in a special way. Always there, always amazing, always giving that unconditional love as she knew how to do. She still is ever present and always will be as she will continue to watch over each one of you in her own special way. May you find the strength in each other and in Jesus Christ. My family joins me in this expression of sympathy.

With deep sadness,

Paula, Thierry, Maria, and Hunter

“ Bill, Todd, Rachelle, Shelly and Crystal,
Though we all knew God was calling Peg it is just not an easy "Good Bye". Her strength, her faith, her courage and her will carried her to levels almost impossible to witness. She taught us lessons that books never could. From our early childhood years to our "Granny Years" we always shared fun, laughter and joy. (especially our trips)
Peg's family was her "Treasure" and she was truly a "Jewel".
Cooking, Cleaning and Caring no one could outdo her on those three "c's".
I know I join fellow "63" Classmates in sincere condolence and when we get that special feeling of closeness we will know it is Peg strengthening our bond of friendship from above.
May God Bless all of you and I sincerely must say, "Thanks For The Memories", and the years of sharing we were so lucky to have.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons
