“ I just learned of Randy's passing. I worked with Randy from time to time over the years and came to know him as a skilled craftsman and good hearted person. I have not seen Randy in quite some time. A quiet man of few words who earned the respect of his peers by his deeds. My condolences to his family during this trying time.

“ Dear Jennifer, Sissy and I were completely shocked by your phone call. Randy's death has made me realize again how fragile life can be. Though I only met you both 5 years ago, the common elements in our lives made it seem like we were friends much longer. I'll miss Randy especially at Lake Bundick. I know these coming days will be especially difficult for you, and we will keep you and your family in our thoughts and prayers. I still can't believe he's gone.
