“ When my children were younger growing up I called the drugstore often after hours and he never turned me down—an example what Jesus would do — so thankful he is not hurting anymore and is with Jesus — his rewards will be great in heaven after serving others here on earth

“ To Dot and all of the Mouton family, we send our heartfelt condolences and prayers. We have been knowing Raymond since he opened the Pharmacy, and we always saw him as a quiet, gentle person who always had a smile on his face! He and Dot raised a beautiful family and we got to know them all. I watched the video and all the beautiful photos are a wonderful tribute to him and your whole family. What a beautiful keepsake with lots of wonderful memories!
