“ I knew Becky back in the 70's. She was a very special lady, fun loving and kind. I wish I would not have lost touch with her but I can see by the pictures that she was surrounded by a wonderful family all these years. What a blessing! I am so sorry for your loss and my prayers are with you. 🙏 Yvonne Floyd Duncan

“ Beautiful woman inside and out. Faith filled and she LOVED GOD most of all! She didn't just talk the Christian talk she walked the Christian walk every day of her life. Such an inspiration and such a self giving person. Even though her "plate was full" she ALWAYS took time out for others. Becky was a humble giver and a person who cared. No one left her company without being better for the time she spent with them. I am SOOOOOOOOOO blessed & thankful that God brought me to the place where I met her, got to know her , got to love her and got to be Becky's friend. I am sad to not hear her voice, her laugh, talk for a LONG time on the phone or see her smile again but her beautiful soul will NEVER be forgotten. She's touched MANY MANY people. Her positiveness and example will be for all of us to live as she did. Eternal rest grant to Becky, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her. You are with your Father God now, Becky. To Dan, Danielle, Patrick, David, Kristie and all of her grandchildren and family----she loved y'all so much and y'all just filled her life and were her pride and JOY! What an absolute blessing to have a sister, wife, Mom, Mom in law, Grand Maw , Aunt like Becky Morgan. The world would be a much better place with more like her. Be it God's will Becky I hope to see you again one day in a place where there will be No pain, No tears, No sadness but absolute and eternal happiness, peace, joy and love in His Presence. So proud to have known you and call you my friend. rest in peace.

As Becky travelled through life she left footprints wherever she went...Footprints of kindness and love, courage & compassion, humor and inspiration, joy and faith.

I will forever be able to look back and clearly see the trail that she left behind. A trail bright with hope that invites me to follow her. Becky will be forever loved and never forgotten.
