“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21;3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ I am writing to express my deepest condolences at this time. I also wanted to share these scriptures that I often find to be encouraging. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 reminds us that through prayer 'the God of all comfort, comforts us in all our tribulation', and 1 Peter 5:7 tells us to 'throw all of your anxiety upon him [God], because he cares for you.' Please feel free to visit www.watchtower.org for more encouraging thoughts and scriptures. Your family has my sincere sympathy.

“ I saw that my cousin Arthur passed away the other day and I am so sorry to hear it. He was my dad's brother. My dad and mom were Ike and Inez Mayfield.

My sisters, Barbara, Donna and I send our deepest sympathy. It would be great to talk to you all - I really want to reconnect with my Mayfield family. Here below is my contact information and hopefully we can talk sometime.
