“ Took a job in Crowley 19 yrs ago and was brought to Cajun Way where I first met Chet. Treated me like "one of the boys" from the first day. Looked forward to spending a few minutes with him every time we would eat there. Always had a smile on his face and the quickest dry wit of anybody I knew. You ALWAYS felt better after a conversation with Chet. I hated it when he moved to the Jennings store. Was never the same. He was truly one of the good guys and the void he will leaves will be immense. My heart goes out to Cynthia and the girls.

“ Working with Chet for almost 12 years was always enjoyable. Yes, we had our moments where we butted heads but for the most part, he was an awesome and understanding boss.

I have no words for this loss, and I surely cannot imagine what Cynthia and her family are going through right now, and in the coming days. Boudin King and Cajun way will never be the same, already the loss of Chet is felt. Sending prayers, well wishes and hugs to each and everyone of his family and friends.

*Much love,
Trish Finley Leger and the Finley Family.*

“ Seems so weird that just Saturday when you came to Cajun Way we were all laughing and clowning.. smh there was definitely not a moment shared with you in remorse. You were a great boss, there was always plenty of laughs with you. You never wanted me to lift up on the heavy things, even though you always knew I was way stronger than the guys lol 😭 The few times I stopped working at Cajun Way and came right back you always said to me , " Girl you made it back here to us huh!" All I could do is laugh .. You will definitely be missed Mr.Chet! Forever in our hearts!

“ True, great friendships stand the test of time and space and that's what Cynthia and Chet are to us...great friends. We are truly sad that we didn't get to visit recently. We sure could have used one of Chet's funny stories and the way he always told them with enthusiasm. The Oliver and Caillier families are in our hearts and prayers. Rest peacefully, Chet.

“ Chet....was and will always be a man to be thankful to know in your life. I was lucky enough to work with him and for him for almost 2 years.he often spoke of his family...so proud of them each and all. The man had wisdom and when he spoke you wanted to listen...he had jokes and you needed to listen so youd get a good laugh. He will be greatly missed. RIP CHET
