“ Beth & Eric ;

Your husband and father has departed this life but in many ways he still lives on . In the spirit by everyone that has known him in the span of his lifetime .In the love of his wife,the genes of his sons,grandchildren;also in his wonderful body of photography work he created . I will always remember his kind generous and gentle nature .

Ron and I have walked down many roads , driven many miles , hoisted a many brews , shared happy times along with the sad in the fifty eight years we have been friends . This Irish poem is for him.

*"It's easy to be pleasant when life flows by like a song.
But the man worth while is the one who can smile
When everything goes dead wrong.
For the test of the heart is trouble and it always comes with years.
And the smile that is worth the praises of earth
Is the smile that shines through the tears.
May you be forty years in heaven
Before the devil knows you're dead."*

Farewell lifelong my friend . --- R2

“ When I heard the news, I could not believe it. Mr. Ron was our band photographer at RHS. And after High School, I took up photography, and he was my idol. I know that he touched many many lives, and he will be missed. To Mrs. Goins, These are not the easy times, nor are they happy times... but live each day knowing that we are not just floating through life, each day is a blessing and must be looked upon as such. God granted him a beautiful life as well as a quiet passing. He's probably re-creating the last supper as we speak...

“ My dear friend
We are so sorry we can't be with you. Ron is no longer suffering. He is at peace. Its like a friend of yours stated - he is taking pictures of the angels. Ron will always be with you in your heart. You have wonderful memories of a great life & family. He loved you so much. Ron loved everyone. He loved life (and the Saints). Remember when we lived on Sela Lane next door? The paychecks didn't come in for either of us & you split your last $20 dollars with us? Formula for Kristopher, Jax beer for the guys & you & I got a liter of pepsi to share in the driveway. We all have great memories of how our lives have touched each other & the 36 years of friendship & love.

“ I am writing to express my deepest condolences at this time. I also wanted to share these scriptures that I often find to be encouraging. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 reminds us that through prayer 'the God of all comfort, comforts us in all our tribulation', and 1 Peter 5:7 tells us to 'throw all of your anxiety upon him [God], because he cares for you.' Please feel free to visit www.watchtower.org for more encouraging thoughts and scriptures. Your family has my sincere sympathy.

Words are so inadequate at a time like this. May you feel the comforting presence of the Lord during such a difficult time in your lives. I know the loving memories of all the wonderful years you were privileged to share will sustain you. Although I did not get to visit and be with you, Ronnie (as we cousins knew him) will be sorely missed.

“ I am so glad I had a chance to "re-connect" with Ron the last couple of years while we planned our 50 Year High School Reunion. Ron's mom taught me (I believe it was 6th grade). I am also pleased that I had the privilege of meeting Beth at some of those evenings at Don's as we gathered with high school classmates. What a wonderful marriage and life you two shared!

“ To the family of Mr. Ron, He will be remembered well. He was so fun to take pictures..He took Senior Portraits of our 2 girls, and our niece. And trust me not an easy task..They enjoyed the idea Ron let them be themselves and he brought that out in the pictures he took. Our prayers and thoughts to the entire family.
