Interment will be in the St. Joseph Cemetery #2 in Rayne, LA.

Rev. Kevin Bordelon, Pastor of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Rayne, LA will be the Celebrant of the Funeral Mass and will conduct the funeral services.

Survivors include her daughter, Dianna L. Hanks Parra, son, Kane C. Hanks and spouse Michelle D. Hanks, three grandchildren, Jackie Miller Dimsey, Payton Gayle Hanks and Murren Isabella Hanks, brother, Jed Doerr, two step-sisters, Phyllis Fry and Norma Wilson.

She was preceded in death by husband, Ronald Patrick Hanks, mother, Beatrice Doerr, step-father, Albert Doerr and sister, Suzanne Kasikantiris.

Mrs. Sharon was a High School graduate in South Roxanna, Illinois. Shortly after she joined the United States Marine Corps. She was a telecommunications officer under the Presidency of Lyndon Johnson and was stationed in Germany for a period of time. She was then transferred to Washington, DC, where she met her husband, Ronald Patrick Hanks of Rayne, LA. Her husband served as a Crew Chief Officer on U.S. Marine One, Presidential Helicopter, during the period of Presidencies for Lyndon Johnson and John F. Kennedy. The couple resided in the New Orleans area for a short period of time then eventually became permanent residents of Rayne, LA.

Mrs. Sharon worked alongside her husband in the farming industry in Rayne and surrounding areas and were associated with the Hanks Warehouse seed and feed dealership that was owned and operated by her husband and his brother, Larry Hanks. During her lifetime, she was able to acquire her private pilot's license, attended college at LSU of Eunice, was the operations accountant for Hanks Enterprises, all while raising her family. In her younger years she taught catechism for children of the Rayne Catholic Elementary School, volunteered her time for Catholic Cursillo in Prairie Ronde, LA and sang in the choir for the St. Joseph's Catholic Church.

Mrs. Sharon was a devoted daughter that tended to her Mother, Beatrice Doerr in Roxanna, Illinois for many years until her mother's passing. She loved a good cup of coffee, Elvis, fishing off of her son's fishing pier in Toledo Bend, and shooting at squirrels with a BB gun in her back yard - which they always seemed to haunt her because they would eat all of her bird seed. She loved nothing more than to sit with family and friends while working through a tray of boiled crawfish with a few ice-cold Miller Light beers to quench her thirst. Those that knew her well always expected a detailed and sometimes, arguable, but friendly conversation. A relative from Illinois, Griffen Courtoise, currently serving our Country in Pakistan as a US Air-Bourne Ranger, wrote a caption on social media when he was made aware of her passing. He knew her well. "She started a life and made a family in Cajun Country in Louisiana, whom she loved with every fiber of her being, and despite what she insisted, her gumbo was truly wonderful. Most importantly, she had a strong and abiding faith in our Lord Jesus Christ; and I know she is now fulfilling the purpose of her existence praising Him with all her soul in paradise. The way she described things she could make the most mundane sound absolutely exquisite. Go with God, Rest in Peace”.

Pallbearers will be Jason Courtoise, Donald Dupuis, Jason Hanks, Scott Dupuis, Noland LeBlanc and Fred Menard.

A Rosary will be prayed Thursday, January 16, 2020 at 6:30 pm in Gossen Funeral Home in Rayne LA.

“ What a fantastic read about the life of a lady that lived it to the fullest. I will celebrate the life of someone I never met, but find to have been so inspirational and I will mourn for the family and friends Miss Sharon left behind.

Michelle, I pray strength and uplifting for you, your husband and girls. Surround yourself with those that will have your back long after the surge of people pass thru the visitations and burial.

You'll hear a hundred, call if you need anything's and what a blessing that is to have so many offers. But it will be on those days where you pick up your phone to call and chat and when you come across her favorite things, that you be sure to take those people up on their offer.

*Peace in your hearts
