“ Daddy, my heart aches but also aches with happiness that now you are at peace. I can't imagine what you were feeling at the end but I do know you knew we loved you and were there for you till the end. I was so sad for you and wished I could make you feel better. It was so hard. Thanks for watching down on us from heaven and one day when I cross over, we will be joined again. I love you daddy. I'm in good hands with James and God is leading us the right way. Your loving daughter, Elaine Broussard Cotton.

“ Denise, Barbara, Caroline, Elaine, Anthony and Marlene...I'm so very sorry for the loss your dad. I believe he is literally in the arms of God now...how beautiful is that?! I personally know it's hard for those of us left behind, having lost my own dad and my brother, so you will all be in my thoughts and prayers. Ms. Marie and Ms. Ethel as well.

*Love to you all,

“ Sidney,

So glad I got to visit with you Saturday, my Buddy.

I will miss you - Your smile, your laugh, your sly sense of humor, your cooking, your wisdom, your friendship.

Heaven's a more colorful place with you there. Now you can finally meet all your ancient Indian kin... "dem Attakapa Indians wots extink cause dey done ate each other up".

Merci, Sidney, I will keep your memory alive for the rest of my days!

Votre Podnuh,

Mojo
