“ My heart is broken in pieces, Mr. Steve was the most wonderful, nice, kind, and respectful man that I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. Mr. Steve and Mrs. Dot treated me and Ami's with such love and devotion. When Ami told me this I could not believe it, this whole family has been nothing but respectful, sweet, and just adorable and not to mention honest people who could have ever came into me and Ami's life, and I have been knowing this family for years and years. Mrs. Dot, I have always loved you and your entire family and that will never change, I don't care what people say, you guys are awesome. Thank all of you for being in Ami's life as a friend, she had to grow up without her dad who died when she was only 3 1/2 months old, and when y'all came into her life, she had a dad (Mr. Steve, a second mother Mrs. Dot (who always kept her in line), she always looked at Ashley as an Aunt and not to mention Rocky, who she look to as her teddy bear. We will miss Mr. Steve and when I would tell him to call my number at bingo, he would say, I got you, even though the number never did come out. All of you made me and Ami so very happy and not to mention Y'all did not care that we were black. This family is a prime example of expressing to others that LOVE HAS NO COLOR. Thank you Mr. Steve for helping me raise my daughter and you were never worried about the color of skin, even though she was bi-racial, this is what true american's are all about. Ashley you are and will always be Ami's heart. Rest in peace Mr. Steve, may God forever hold you in his heart and arms. We will miss you dearly. Love all of you so much and I am so sorry for your lost. Keeping all of you in my heart and prayers. And also I miss all of you so much.

“ I loved my uncle Steve ❤️. I came to visit after my dad passed (Harry Trahan) and I wanted to learn about how my dad and his siblings grew up so we set for an adventure. It was a magical day. I wanted to take pictures of the frog's in front of business! Well uncle Steve stood with every frog we counted 50 plus and I took his picture. I learned so much that day 🌸💜💛🤔 I already miss you 😭
