“ Susan had the kindest heart and her dad was always her first priority. She took such good care of him and I think she missed him dearly. I have comfort in knowing that she is now with him, as well as her mom and brother Gregory. I love you and miss you dearly.

“ Susan all your calls and text will be missed . Since my mom passed in August you always checked up on me . Then when your dad passed I started checking on you . Your heart is so kind and always thinking of others. We had the best times when we were able to get together. Rest in peace my beautiful friend

“ Susan never met a stranger and loved her friends and coworkers like family. She was a giver, always a helper and lived with a smile on her face and pep in her step. Her dedication and loyalty to her family was endless as was her laughter. May she rest in peace.

“ Susan was her mother made over! Susan was a young lady comfortable in most any situation that I can recall and found the good in most everyone that I ever heard her speak of. She has earned her wings and halo with the undying love, care, and devotion she bestowed to her daddy. We will miss you, Susan. May you Rest In Peace!
Love, Val
