Taylor was a 2007 graduate of Rayne High School and obtained her college degree from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in 2011. Her generous heart could be felt by anyone she came in contact with. She had a special gift of not only seeing the good in people but bringing out the best in them as well. Taylor was an avid lover of guns and the outdoors. She spent most of her time crawfishing for her father, bartending, and working at gun shops which helped her establish her immense gun collection. She had quite an adventurous streak. She also enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She knew how to have the most fun and always brought life to the party! Her love for guns were only surpassed by the love she had for her family. She shared an unbreakable bond with her parents and their relationship was like no other. She also had a special bond with her Granny whom she loved deeply. Taylor was selfless and always put others first. Her tough exterior never fooled anyone on how loving and caring she was. Her strength is truly inspiring.
