“ Dear Pop, ever since you left it's been hard. I often think about you. It's been 3 years since you have passed. Im 15 now. I turn 16 soon and I'm gonna get a job. I really miss you pop. I hope you're in heaven with Jesus and if you are make sure to take care of meemaw for me okay? You'd be so proud of me if you were here. I got over self harm and suicidal thoughts and I've found peace with God and I will constantly pray for you pop. It's been a tough ride but I'm finally happy. I still haven't fully grieved your passing but I will forever love you and if you get this tell Jesus I said hi. 💕💕 With Love, your granddaughter Gracie.

“ On behalf of Pie and myself we extend our deepest sympathy. My biggest memories of him were all the fun we had in the fields cutting rice with him, uncle Adolph, Uncle Cleo and Uncle Nelson those were some great memories. I know he will be greatly missed but he is with the love of his life again. RIP Mr. T.J.. Georgette Richard
