“ When I met Vic it was for a job interview, by the end of the interview he didn't know whether to hire me or ask me on a date. So he did both. A year and a half later we were married. He was a wonderful husband and father to my girls. He will be greatly missed.

“ In met Vic on a cold December day in 1985. He and I were both freshmen at Wabash College and he lived across the street at the Sigma Chi house while I was a Phi Psi. Even though we were in different houses, we became brothers and even lived off campus together for a time. He was truly one of the best friends that I have had or will ever have. 32 years have passed, and we never lost contact although I saw him far to little of him over the last several years. You always think there will be more time... Today I say farewell for now. Much love always Victor. May the arms of the Lord shelter you in his Grace forever. Until we meet again...

“ I met Vic in 2006 when I started working at U.S. Support... he was my trainer and we hit it off tremendously. Over the years we become best of friends, roommates and brothers. We shared many great times together and we got through some rough times too. Always together though and he was always there for me. I will miss him dearly and will always remember him as he was... a bright light and a great friend and brother. He became a part of my family for real and we loved him for who he was. I could tell so many stories about the times we had.... I'll say just this... Vic I'm going to miss you so much my brother and when my time comes save me a spot at the table I'll get the first round!!!

“ I met Vic in 2006 when I was training to go on the floor at US Support. He was to be my mentor for the phones, but little did I know he'd become a great friend. He taught me everything I knew & I couldn't have asked for a better mentor. I love ya Vic & I hope you're at peace. To the family of Victor, my family & I send our deepest condolences, as they knew him as well. RIP Vic. You'll definitely be missed & thought of a lot.

“ Vic,
I'm not going to use the word "were", you are more more than a trainer. You are a mentor, a friend, a smile , and a person that that makes a everlasting change in a persons life. Thank you . God bless !
