“Mr Wesson was a wonderful Cajun gentleman who will be greatly missed. He was very kind in welcoming me into the family. A fond memory was when Cody and I came to visit around Christmas one year and had brought some live Dungeness crabs from California to share with our Louisiana family. We brought a couple crabs that we boiled over to his and Miss Kate's house. We where delighted to watch him throughly enjoy those crabs! It made bringing them worth it to see his eyes light up. He had a sincerity to him and was a wonder story teller too. We never came to Louisiana without seeing him. Rest In Peace dear cousin till we all share coffee and good food again.

“ My fondest memories of my Parrin are when I was young....watching baseball games at night, doughnuts in the morning from Gautreauxs when he came in from working nights and always having the funny pages for me. He was a great Godfather to me and Tyler. Aunt Kate and Dette keep his memories alive.
