“ My daddy was a hard-working man all-his life he loved the oil field ! If he wasn't cutting his own grass he was cutting somebody else's that need help or taking somebody to the doctor or to the store are picking pecans maybe sitting on his back porch feeding his pet squirrels sitting out there drinking coffee I see him in his overalls and his slip-on black shoes my daddy like all of us wasn't perfect but he was a good man he loved his children his grandchildren and his great-grandchildren he loved Jesus he did the best he could with what he had and what he knew he was proud of every one of you and every one of us he loved his brothers and his sister too he never met a stranger he loved music and he loved dancing he was proud of everyone and his family but most of all if he had a favourite it would have been Matthew! Daddy I just hope you know that we love you and I didn't know you were sick I would have been there I pray that you rest in peace and I pray that you're sitting with angels around you Dancing in the Sky and if you see my little dogs running around up in heaven grab out of there grab them and kiss them for me love you Daddy!!! May you rest in peace❤️

Yes we've all got cds of Mathew. He was very proud of him and made sure to share his talent with us. One of his wishes was for Mathew to sing "Promiseland" at his funeral. However I haven't had any luck getting in touch with anyone. Maybe you could help.

“ Resting a bit. Christmas 2019. You can tell he's a bit tired and weak here but he always stuck it out. We'd wake up in the morning and see him with his wheel barrel picking up sticks or pecans. He never stopped until his weary body gave out. May God bless him while we remember all the good in him.

This is the last Christmas Eve Wilbert and I had together. I was fortunate to have 9 years with him, he was a good man and we loved each other very much. I will miss him so much, but it was better to have known him than not had known him at all.

Today was the last time I saw him.. A few mths back. He was happy, singing and joking around for my son's birthday even though he had alot going on in his life... I hope I always remember him this way!
