“ I'll never forget when we moved in across the street for your house. 17-18 years ago.. You introduced yourself and your family to us and we all became super close . I remember always going to your house and just hanging out or even just going over while you were outside and getting one of the best loving hugs ever . You were a grandfather to me not by blood but family isn't always blood ... I know your gonna watch over all of us and send signs that your still with us.... I know your now reunited with your sweet girl sweet pea. Love you lots , you'll be missed but never forgotten.
