“ Heartfelt condolences to the family of Willie Etta Servat- she was Aunt Billy to me. Our families met on a Cosmos bus tour of Europe in the early 1980's when I was a young girl. She and my Mom & Dad became such good friends. They shared the same faith & values and love of life.

I remember how Aunt Billy & her sister, Myrtle, would made the best fig jam our family ever tasted; they would mail us a delightful gift of canned figs from Louisiana to Ohio year after year. How I will miss Aunt Billy's voice. God bless her in His Kingdom.

“ Myrtle and family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Willie Etta. She was really one of a kind, so smart, so loving, a beautiful voice and just an overall wonderful person. She and Myrtle attended my daughters wedding in Italy 17 years ago. We had the best time with them. None of us will ever forget her singing Ave Maria on a bridge in Venice. I will really miss her.

“ Ms. Servat was a favorite teacher of both my husband and I. She instilled a love of travel in us from the wonderful slides she shared of her travels with her sixth grade students. We will miss our phone conversations and occasional visits with she and Ms. Myrtle. Ms. Servat had a remarkable memory and love for the students whose lives she touched through teaching. With our love and affection,
