“ Zack you was and always will be my bestfriend. It's been a year and a day and I still think about you constantly. It still hasn't hit me you aren't here anymore with me and when I think about it it hurts a lot to know you really aren't. I'm always waiting for a phone call from you to say "I'm coming over. Let's go play tennis and eat Asian." I pray you are in heaven where you belong. The weather is bad today and I know you would love it Mr. Astronomer. I love you Za-za.

Your cousin, Jackson, 25, and I will miss you greatly, sweet guy. Although we've lived away since you were born, I feel like I watched you grow up. Holidays at Granny's and Aunt Georgie' were special and magical times. We will miss you, your beautiful smile, genteelness and EVERYTHING about YOU, Zack! May you rest in peace, sweet young man. Love, Aunt Mary and Jackson
