She was preceded in death by her husband, Andrus Stutes, father, Columbus

Richard, mother, Mamie Richard, three brothers, Jimmy Richard, Edward Richard, Roy Richard and son-in-law, Bobby Johnson.

“Mom-Mom” as she was famously known, developed a love for hard work at a young age. If you had the privilege to catch a story, she had no problem telling you that she was a “jack of all trades.” From picking cotton to driving rice trucks, nursing, carpentry and sometimes a mechanic, there wasn’t much that she could not do. Equipped with a strong memory and threads, she could replicate any dress or suit on her sewing machine at home. Mom-Mom also enjoyed baking and designing some of the tastiest wedding cakes around.

Mom-Mom spent the last few years working in the General Store of Acadian Village with Pop. After Pop’s passing, she spent most of her time at home, visiting with anyone that would walk through the door or call. Although her health declined, her love for cooking remained strong. Mom-Mom left a lasting impression in everyone’s heart and will forever be missed.

A special thank you to Denise Credeur, Monique Bush, Flo Sizemore and also her favorite therapist, Sam, for all their time and love spent with her the last few years.

Pallbearers will be Kade Stutes, Blayne Abshire, Blayson Abshire, Bendy Falcon, Dana Falcon, Drew Falcon, Kyle Stutes and Tyler Stutes.

A Rosary will be prayed on Sunday, February 26, 2023, at 3:00 pm in Gossen Funeral Home in Rayne, LA.

The family requests that visitation be observed in Gossen Funeral Home on Sunday, February 26, 2023, from 1:00 pm to 7:00 pm and on Monday, February 27, 2023, from 8:00 am to 9:30 am.
